'The World Belongs to the Encourager'

Welcome National Speaker
Erick Rheam

Life is hard and challenging, especially with change as our constant companion; however, there is one relationship tool that will never become obsolete, "Encouragement." In this motivational talk, I share a compelling real-world story of rags to riches and will invite the

Letter from the President

Hello Fellow ANEW Members,

The month of September marks the beginning of many exciting events for ANEW. This month, we have National Speaker, Erick Rheam, coming to town to present an encouraging and inspirational talk. You will not want to miss out on this meeting and it's also a great meeting to invite some guests! We are also holding our Annual Recruitment Event on September 19. Please make plans to come to that as well.

Following those events, comes our Annual Meeting on October 24. It is the only evening meeting we have each year but doing so allows us to enjoy some fun together after hours. Our Annual Meeting is a chance to celebrate our ANEW members by recognizing achievements and efforts, honor one outstanding ANEW member as the new Woman of Action, and provide attendees with an opportunity to learn more about ANEW and its initiatives. You will also get a chance to vote on the new Board of Directors slate for 2019. We want as many members to attend this meeting as possible and it is also open for guests to attend. I really hope you consider coming, you will not regret it.

As usual, I encourage all of you to reach out to me with any comments you may have. I am looking forward to talking with you at some of the upcoming events.

See you soon,

Sincerely,
Jill Rawley
ANEW President 2018

Membership Profile

5 Things you Didn't Know about Jill Trautvetter

1. When she was in Elementary School, she was on the bowling team and the pom-pom squad.
2. When she was in high school, she played the alto sax in the marching band, pep band and all city band.
3. When she was in college, she changed her major three times from airline pilot to business administration and finally to PR/Advertising/Communications.
4. At her wedding, she was so nervous that she leaned back away from her husband when it was time to kiss the bride. Everyone laughed.
5. She would love to vacation in all the national parks.

Jill is the Program Manager for the Mobile Breast Center at Deaconess Hospital. She has been a member of ANEW for 2 years.

Thank you, Jill, for sharing with us!

Job Postings are available on our ANEW Website

Fellow ANEW Members,

What do you value most about being a member of ANEW? For some it's the opportunity to network with professional women and grow their circle of influence. Others enjoy the monthly programming and the chance to hear topics that advance women in our community both personally and professionally. Still others enjoy the chance to form friendships and learn from peers.

We all have a reason we joined ANEW and a reason we stay involved. As you consider your "why", I challenge you to think about other professional women in your network who might enjoy learning more about our organization. The Membership Recruitment Event is the perfect time to invite a guest to hear more about ANEW and meet some of our members while enjoying appetizers and wine in a relaxed setting.

Attached you will find your invite to the event along with an additional email invite to forward to your guest(s). The Membership Committee looks forward to seeing you there!
